

Marriage

Two are better than one because they have a good reward for their efforts. For if either falls, his companion can lift him up; but pity the one who falls without another to lift him up. Also, if two lie down together, they can keep warm; but how can one person alone keep warm? And if someone overpowers one person, two can resist him. A cord of three strands is not easily broken. - Ecclesiastes

4:9-12

FRIENDS – Proverbs 27:5-9

- Better an open reprimand than concealed love.
- The wounds of a friend are trustworthy, but the kisses of an enemy are excessive.
- A person who is full tramples on a honeycomb, but to a hungry person, any bitter thing is sweet.
- Anyone wandering from his home is like a bird wandering from its nest.
- Oil and incense bring joy to the heart, and the sweetness of a friend is better than self-counsel.

LOVERS – Song of songs 5:16

His mouth is sweetness.

He is absolutely desirable.

This is my love, and this is my friend,
young women of Jerusalem.

PARTNERS – Acts 18:24-26

Now a Jew named Apollos, a native Alexandrian, an eloquent man who was competent in the use of the Scriptures, arrived in Ephesus. He had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately about Jesus, although he knew only John's baptism. He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. After Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained the way of God to him more accurately.
